MARIANAPOLIS PREP

Legal Studies Faculty Position 2017-2018:

Marianapolis Preparatory School seeks a qualified part time Legal Studies teacher, preferably with experience in a secondary school. The position will include teaching one class, working with the collaboration and supervision of the History and Social Sciences Department Chair and the Academic Dean. The qualified applicant will have experience with a broad range of law related topics including: the nature and functions of law in a society, legal principles and fundamentals, civil law, criminal law, international law, law in a mixed market economy, and government regulation. In addition, the school seeks a candidate who has knowledge and experience in using educational technology in the classroom, and who brings an active interest in engaging in a 21st century learning community.

Preference will be given to candidates who have:

- Demonstrable skills in oral and written communication
- Ability to work well in a student-centered curriculum
- Understanding of learning styles and differentiated instruction
- Desire to work with high school learners
- Skill at managing multi-faceted work in an intense and supportive learning community

Interested candidates should send the following to teachingpositions@marianapolis.org:

- A cover letter summarizing your reasons for wanting to teach at Marianapolis
- A current résumé
- Contact information for three professional references (email preferred)

At Marianapolis, all persons shall have the opportunity to be considered for employment without regard for race, religion, natural origin or ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law. The School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law in the administration of employment practices or procedures, promotion, or application of employee policies and benefits.

Revised 10/13/17