MARIANAPOLIS PREP

Science Faculty Position for 2018-2019:

Marianapolis Preparatory School seeks a qualified teacher of biology, preferably with three to five years experience in an independent secondary school setting, to teach part-time (four sections) as an active and supportive member working with the collaboration and supervision of the Science Department Chair. The science department offerings are built around a three-year sequential core program leading to AP® course offerings in Chemistry, Physics, and Biology. Preference is given to generalist science teacher candidates with expertise in the integration of technology into classroom instruction.

Preference will be given to candidates who have:

- Demonstrable skills in oral and written communication
- Ability to work well in a student-centered curriculum
- Understanding of learning styles and differentiated instruction
- Desire to work with high school learners
- Skill at managing multi-faceted work in an intense and supportive learning community

All teacher candidates are expected to have either experience or interest in learning the Understanding by Design curriculum development framework, and to attend a required new faculty workshop in August. Preferred candidates must enjoy working with adolescents, have an ability to work well in a student-centered curriculum, and understand student learning styles and differentiated instruction.

Interested candidates should send the following to teachingpositions@marianapolis.org:

- A cover letter summarizing your reasons for wanting to teach at Marianapolis
- A current résumé
- Contact information for three professional references (email preferred)

At Marianapolis, all persons shall have the opportunity to be considered for employment without regard for race, religion, natural origin or ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law. The School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law in the administration of employment practices or procedures, promotion, or application of employee policies and benefits.
